Drugs and Youth: A Deadly Mix, Parents Recount
On Thursday, June 8, 2006, hundreds will come to DEA Headquarters to take part in a candlelight vigil to remember those who have died from drugs. Some of the parents in attendance that night will be Don Hooton, whose son Taylor died from steroids, and Kim and Marissa Manlove, whose son David died from inhalant abuse. Their stories and details of the vigil can be viewed by clicking

DEA knows that, in order to fight drugs, we need to first cut off the chemicals that make them. Click here to
